

CWA 2016 Nobel Peace Prize

Lucas

I voted for Lucas because he takes action and never gives up. He started a sock drive for those who don't have any socks. He is very kind with his friends and even with those he doesn't know well. Lucas is very generous and supportive. Lucas is always willing to help others and he is respectful with students and adults. He is attentive in class and never interrupts the teacher. He doesn't cause any problems. You could always count on Lucas if you need help. He always takes care of others when they are hurt. Lucas always gives more than he takes. He deserves the CWA Nobel Peace Prize.

CWA 2016 Nobel Peace Prize

Alexa

Alexa is very peaceful. She has never started any conflicts. She is very calm and she is a problem fixer. If you are having a bad day or not getting along with others, she will comfort you. She always cares about other people's feelings. She helps other students in class and never interrupts when others are speaking. She is respectful with both adults and peers. She never gets people mad; she just wants to make other people's days better. When she is given a task to do, she always does her best. She is very enthusiastic. Alexa is a wonderful person and that is why I nominated her.

CWA 2016 Nobel Peace Prize

Claudia

I nominate Claudia for the CWA Nobel Peace Prize because she is amazing. Claudia is not only kind to her friends, but to everyone in the school. She is always nice and knows how to make people feel good. She is always trying to help the environment and people in other countries. Even if someone has been mean to her in the past, she does not hold a grudge. She is respectful with classmates and is always in a good mood. No matter what situation she is in, she always speaks her mind and is honest. Claudia has a beautiful personality and it will blossom for all eternity.

Reno

Reno is a great leader. He is very respectful, calm and funny. He does not do any bad actions or use bad language. He is very empathetic and always tries to help if there is a problem. He is great at solving conflicts. Not only does he help other students but even the teachers. Reno would never laugh at an inappropriate joke and he always plays fair. I have never seen Reno really mad. Even if someone pushes him, he will never push back. If something is unfair, Reno makes it fair. Reno deserves the CWA Nobel Peace Prize because he never causes conflicts, he fixes them. He is peaceful and kind.

Jeremy

Jeremy is very kind, caring, respectful and funny. He is also a creative and smart person who helps people when they need help. He is always nice to everyone even if he is upset or sad. He is empathetic because he cares about how others feel and he is a good friend to lots of people. Jeremy is also open-minded because he always understands everyone's point of view. He is a joyful person that has a bunch of joy and shares it with everyone around him. There are many people in grade 5 who deserve the CWA Nobel Peace Prize, but Jeremy really, really deserves it. Jeremy is the best!

CWA 2016 Nobel Peace Prize

Zayden

Zayden is always very patient and kind no matter how annoying people get. He is nice to everyone. He is a good communicator and always willing to help others. Zayden is a risk-taker because he asks a lot of good questions in class. He takes class time very seriously and is a good student. He is creative with his work and respectful towards students, teachers and things that are not his. He remains calm and focused all the time. He is great at helping people with stress. Zayden always plays fair and always makes good choices. He is also great at giving advice. Everyone should be like Zayden. He is a great role model.
