Coordinator's Corner

June is already here!

And with it, comes our last Learner Profile attribute: Reflective.

As our school year is coming to an end, it's a good time for our students to reflect on what they have learned and maybe set goals for next year...

Listed are some ideas how we are developing this attribute at school and how you can help your child being reflective at home.

Reflective

I think about my own learning. I think about my strengths and weaknesses in a constructive manner.

Learner Profile Attribute

I can help my child to develop this attribute at home by...

- Doing positive reinforcement.
- Asking him-her questions that will help him-her analyze his-her behaviour, learning and activities (after a school day, a field trip, when he-she brings a test, a project, ...)

My child develops this attribute at school when...

- He-she analyzes in an honest manner his-her learning, his-her behaviour through self-evaluation.

He-she sets realistic goals

Here are some book about being reflective / réfléchi:

- Quelle vie de chien, Christine Bonenfant
- Votez pour Magalie!, Yvan DeMuy
- Those Shoes, Maribeth Boelts
- Grandfather's Journey, Allen Say

CWA Eco-corner

Summer is coming but even though the CWA school year is ending, we should remember to continue to practice COMPOSTING and the 4 R's of REDUCE, REUSE, RINSE and RECYCLE to ensure a healthy and happy environment for everyone.

By composting, recycling and using CWA's own dishware at the recent Grandparents Luncheon, the CWA Green Committee along with an enthusiastic group of Grade 5 students did a great job to reduce waste and empower students through the CWA Dish washing Eco-challenge!

Also, a survey was recently circulated among CWA teachers and daycare staff who provided their helpful insights and ideas as to what Green projects could be implemented at CWA next year. To find out more about these upcoming projects or if you are interested in joining or assisting the CWA Green committee please contact us by email through Ms. Lynn at lcloss@lbpsb.qc.ca

WHY RINSE?

It's always necessary to rinse containers to prevent mould and unpleasant odours. This way, we avoid contaminating other recyclable materials such as paper and cardboard, and having to landfill these materials that could otherwise be recycled. It is also a matter of cleanliness and hygiene for employees of the recycling and sorting facilities.

DID YOU KNOW?

Soft plastic such as bread bags and plastic wrap can jam the equipment at the recycling and sorting facility. Please put these items in a single bag and tie it. Recycling will be easier.

CWA Uniforms

It is that time of year again - spring has finally sprung! As you are switching over from winter to summer gear and making room in your closets, keep in mind our CWA Cardigan/Uniform Sale.

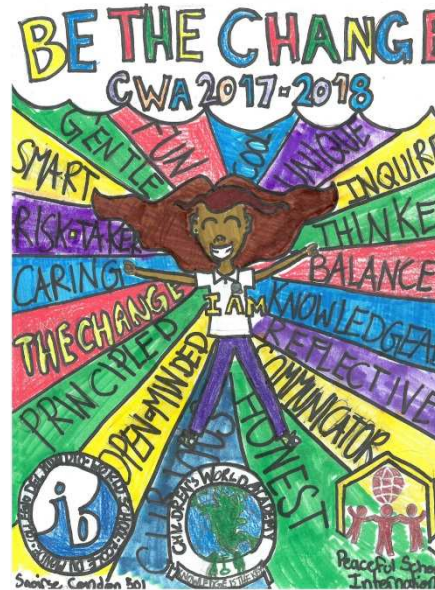

At the end of each school year, we collect any and all cardigans, as well as polos, gym shorts, gym t-shirts, trousers, or any of the uniform components in good condition that your child may have grown out of. The clothing is then resold for reasonable prices with all proceeds going to CWA's Home and School to fund activities for the students throughout the next school year.

If you have any clothing from our uniform to repurpose, please send the items to school with your child during the last week of school. They will be put aside until the new school year and offered to all parents at the Uniform Sale. Dates and details of the sale will follow. Thank you for your participation,

Elisa Sebastiano

Who Am I?

Did you guess March's mystery staff member with the clues provided? If you guessed CWA's Spanish teacher "Ms. Luci" you would be correct! Here she is at 4 years old!

Ready for the last Who Am I? of the year? With the help of the clues below, see if you can guess the identity of our mystery staff member. Look for the answer in the Globe in late June.

Who Am I?

Bonjour! I was born in the month of April in Quebec City and grew up in Saguenay with my two sisters and our pet budgies. Growing up in this beautiful part of the province has given me such an appreciation of nature: I love gardening, fishing, being in the woods and spending as much time outdoors as possible. It's no coincidence that my favourite color is green! I attended École St. Joseph where my favourite subjects were biology and math. Although I dreamed of becoming a doctor when I was younger, I became a teacher instead and I love it! I've been teaching for 25 years – 11 of them at CWA. When I first started teaching, I could walk to the beach with my students and teach math in the sand using sticks, rocks and seashells. Nature rocks! On my days off, you'll find me driving my kids around. I have four of them and my family is my pride and joy! Some of my other favourite things include the movie E.T.: the Extra-Terrestrial, monkeys, spaghetti (yum!), and listening to Jason M'raz. One last thing: this summer, spend some time in nature. It's the best classroom!
